Saturday was a fine day for business, according to the generally expressed opinion of retail stores in every line. In fact, there is a general feeling that the long delayed wave of prosperity is about to make itself known in this part of the valley. Crop conditions are better at this time of year than for many years, and the same may be said of general fruit conditions. Saw mills that have been delayed on account of the weather will soon begin work and with the lumber industry in a normal condition and other conditions favorable, things look good from a business standpoint.

The Marion County Teachers' rally, held last Saturday in the auditorium of the high school was well attended by teachers from all parts of the county, about 200 being present. The speakers of the day were Dr. H. D. Sheldon, who chose for his topic, "Stages of Mental Development from Infancy to Maturity." J. A. Charney, state superintendent of schools, Prof. A. L. Peck, of the Oregon Agricultural college, speaking on landscape gardening, and Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, president of Willamette university, who spoke on "The Influence of the Teacher on the Pupil." During the morning session, a mixed chorus from the junior high schools gave several musical selections, under the direction of Miss Jessie V. Miller.

Although the different departments of the commercial club will soon elect their directors, the annual election of the officers of the club will not be held until June 7. At this time, besides the election of officers, the action of the seven departments in their election of their directors, will be ratified.
